

This zine was published by DangerousIdeas Collective

Find us on the interwebs ...

Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/DangerousIdeasCollective>

Twitter @DangerousIdeasC

Instagram DangerousIdeasCollective

Website www.dangerousideascollective.org

Patreon <https://www.patreon.com/DangerousIdeasCollective>

Pinterest DangerousIdeas Collective

an•ti•fa Ada Gobetti (1902–1968) was an Italian teacher, journalist and anti-fascist leader. With her husband Piero Gobetti she contributed to several antifascist magazines, including La Rivoluzione Liberale which was suppressed in the 1925 by the fascist dictatorship. She helped the Biennio Rosso, kickstarted in Giustizia e Libertà and co-founded the Partito d'Azione. During the war Gobetti kept a diary that could have caused her death. To encrypt it she wrote it in English. This was the basis of her biography. She kept safe-houses during the war. She was a leader in the Italian resistance movement and she co-founded the female group of partigiane, Gruppi di difesa della donna.