DangerousIdeas Collective is educators, creators and storytellers for the liberation of all people and the planet through the use of media and education. Our primary focus is political education for children, teenagers, adults and elders. Our group includes teachers, lawyers, community organizers, musicians, journalists, activists, writers and artists.

We are FreePress Publishing. We make zines, greeting cards, small books and more aimed at political education, people's history, anti-fascism, anarchist thought and current events.

We are DueJustice Academy. We organize conversations, trainings, classes and courses for children, teenagers, adults and elders around political education, people's history, anti-fascism, anarchist thought and current events.

We are TruthTeller Media. We create podcast, videos, music and more to promote the work of the collective, political education, people's history, anti-fascism, anarchist thought and current events.

We are D.I.D. (DangerousIdeas Design). Choose D.I.D. as your movement public relations agency. We can help tell the story of your small business, collective, cooperative, organization, band, event, or campaign. We can make flyers, create and manage your website, manage your social media, write press releases, design a logo, create a press packet, help you write a speech, help you prepare for public speaking, and so much more! Contact us for our affordable rate at DID@DangerousIdeasCollective.org.
